> EDITOR BANNER:-Can you inform your Bear Creek friends and others why the bridge at Tuscumbia Shut-in branch is not finished or some signs towards its completion. The County has paid out enough for it and we would like to cross on it .- R. O.

[We have sa anxiously waited to see it completed as any person in the county, and could we do anything to urge its completion of course we would do so. We believe the time has been extended until the November court, when it should be complete in fact. The delays thus far have fortunately not deterred travel. And further, owing to the wood work not being let it is not necessary that the balance of the structure be pushed to a completion, as the wood work cannot be fin. lahed before the November court. - Ep.

The most bold attempt to assaultate a fel-low mortal took place near Mr. Pleasant last Sunday morning. The particulars as we have been informed are as follows:

On last Sunday morning a young man named James Boark wont out to drive home a cow, when from a concealed pixes came the discharge of a thot gun at him, his would be assault, John Tracy, a young man, finding the discharge had not taken affect stopped from his place of concealment and taking full view and deliberate also fired the second shot, still without effect, whereupon James Roark started to retreat, closely followed by Tracy who draw a revolver and during a short chase fired three shots, just at the time of the third shot Roark dropped down in a fence corner to relieve himself of his heavy boots that he foight he able to make better speed, when he so suddenly sat down Tracy supposed less that shot did the work, as he was heard say "now I have got you," and possed his pursuit and retraced his course, mounted his horse and fied, leaving James Roark untosched. Two men are in pursuit of Tracy and it is quite probable he will be brought back to shawer for this wicked attempt at murder in a most salfish manner. No cause is known why Tracy should have made the desperate attack.

Perry Pinckney Fowler was the only surviving son of Jan. M. and Mary Fowler, born in WSS Cole county, Mo., March 20, 1846. He grow up and resided with his mother and sisters (his father having died Jan. 16th, 1864,) till his marriage to Miss Motlis A. Coggburn second daughter of Doctor Coggburn, dec'd which marriage took place Sopt. 22nd, 1875. With his wife and two little children, Luther and Georgia Ann, he resided till his death which occured the 21st day of Sept., 1879 (Sunday) from the effects of typhus fever.

He was at the time of his death a member of the Baptist Church, and was also the Junfor Warden of Bickory Hill Lodge of A. F. and A. M. He was good and kind to his mother and sisters and also to his family. He enjoyed the kind wishes of his neighbors.

His funeral sermon was preached by Elder E. M. Lumpkin at Hickory Hill, Cole Co. or Monday 23nd day of Sept., where in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives his body was laid in the Masonic Cemetery by the fraternity to awalt the final
